

The Jakobstad region consists of the following 5 municipalities in Ostrobothnia:

Jakobstad, Kronoby, Larsmo, Nykarleby
and Pedersöre

The region is a relaxed and unpretentious area.
We are proud of what we do and who we are,
and here you can feel free to be yourself, too.

Whatever we do, we do not compromise on quality.
This can be confirmed by the many customers the region's enterprises have the around the world.

Welcome. We hope you will enjoy living here.

Culture & Leisure

In the Jakobstad region there exists a natural approach to creative expression, amongst both the older and younger generations. Amateur theatre associations thrive in all parts of the region, and the visual arts and music have traditionally been strong in the area.

Sports associations are also numerous in our part of the world, and there are sports facilities available throughout the whole area.

What really makes the Jakobstad region stand out is its spirit of community. Here we like to do things together. This is evident in the multitude of associations that enrich the daily life of a vast portion of the region's inhabitants.

Where to Live?

In the Jakobstad region you are close to services regardless of where you choose to live. Distances in the region are short, and it is common for inhabitants to live in one part of the region while working in another.

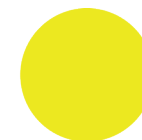

Such proximity is also reflected in the social life of the region's towns and villages: it is easy to meet neighbours and other residents and find one's place socially.
